If you wish to withdraw from the IV-D Program:

1. The Prosecutor's Office will no longer be handling your case, and you will need to get a private attorney.
2. No tax intercepts will take place on your behalf.
3. This will not cancel any court dates that have already been set.
4. If money is due to the state, your withdrawal will not cancel the debt.
5. If you have multiple cases, you can withdraw from only the ones you wish, and remain on the IV-D program for the others.
6. You must sign a form for each case you wish to withdraw from.

REQUEST TO WITHDRAW FROM IV-D

I no longer want the IV-D office to handle my child support case with:

I am not currently receiving TANF benefits and I understand that the IV-D office will no longer assist me in any support matters. I also understand that if I had received TANF benefits in the past and money due to the State of Indiana, the State of Indiana through the IV-D program will continue to collect the money that is due to the State of Indiana.

I understand that by signing this form my IV-D case with the Prosecutor's Office will be closed.
